33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." - Mk 13:30-32

MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From Safari...

It's not the end of the world, you know. The words sounded empty to Rebecca. After spending several years and income obtaining an advanced degree for a long-sought job, she found herself, after three months of employment, back out looking for a job. Two weeks after losing her job she tripped on a rug in her kitchen, which resulted in stitches on her forehead and a broken leg. Within days, she received a notice her apartment rent was going up.

It's not the end of the world, you know. Gary, a young, good-looking man with a good-paying job, envied his friends who were married and were beginning families. His relationships were always short lived. Currently he is not in a relationship, and there seems to be no hope in finding a partner.

It's not the end of the world, you know. Isabel, in midlife, heard those words no one wants to hear from their doctor: "I am sorry, but you have cancer." She had always eaten well and exercised. She was terrified to think about what the weeks ahead might bring.

It's not the end of the world, you know. As Rebecca, Gary, and Isabel will agree, there are times it does seem like the world is coming to an end—the sun is dark, the moon does not shine, the stars are falling from the sky. The personal turmoil brings mental and physical stress; it seems that no matter which way one turns, another calamity waits. It is hard to find hope; there is no joy in the heart; all the people we have relied on disappoint. Perhaps each of us here has been there at some time or other, maybe even right now.

As Christians, the paschal mystery is that light that breaks through the darkness. The paschal mystery is that pattern of dying and rising that is a part of everyone's life. Just as Jesus rose from the dead, we can overcome the situations that seem to be like death—the loss of a job, the end of a relationship, poor health. As the stone was rolled back from the tomb, we can be liberated from our own tombs of despair, loneliness, hopelessness, and doubt.

There will be times when we feel the world is ending, and these moments come at unexpected times. Let us take comfort in Jesus' words, "When you see these things happening, know that he is near." Midst the struggles and pains of life, God is by us. As one image attests: When our car is stalled, there God is; he doesn't start the car but comes and sits with you in the snow bank. And while others may let us down, God's word does not pass away. God saying to us, "I love you, I forgive you, I will not leave you orphan."

It is through these many moments of living the paschal mystery in our lives that we can find hope for the time of our own death. If we have risen from the small deaths along the way, we can have the confidence that our name will be found written in the book, and we will take our place in the heavenly kingdom.

“And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory.” (Mark 13:26)

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, “What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?” How will you respond? The good news – it’s never too late to start living a grateful and generous lifestyle.

“Behold who you are. Become what you receive.” Vocations: Ministries supported by the Bishop’s Annual Appeal create opportunities to discern vocations through retreats, visits and one-on-one engagement. Those pursuing priesthood and the diaconate are supported spiritually, emotionally and financially in their journeys toward ordination. See how your generosity supports vocations by visiting https://youtu.be/aqW_qlyYS3Q Each dollar raised goes directly to ministries that support our Catholic faith and is not used for any other purpose.

HEALING FROM A LOSS SUPPORT GROUP

THEOLOGY DAY

True Happiness: Wisdom of the Heart

How do we find meaning in our lives? Is it a calculus of joy and sorrow, of victory and defeat? What is worth dying for? These deep questions lie just below the surface of our daily experience and can crop up when we least expect them. How we address these questions of meaning can make all the difference as to whether we are happy or sorrowful. How do I handle disappointment? Maintaining balance in our lives as we strive to know and love God and our neighbor requires ongoing attention in the confidence that God is accompanying, guiding, and strengthening us. We will focus on Psalm 90 and Ecclesiastes 12 to better understand what it means to “gain wisdom of heart” in the limited number of years granted to us on this earth.

November 22, presentation from 9am-1pm, Emmaus Hall, Saint John's University, Collegeville. Free event.
Registration is required: www.theologyday.com, 320-363-3560 or theologyday@csbsju.edu.
